the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased by 1.5 million, and the number of people aged 75 and over has increased by 1.2 million (Office of National Statistics 1999). The number of people aged 65 and over is projected to increase to 6.5 million by 2011, and the number of people aged 75 and over to 4.5 million (Office of National Statistics 1999).

There is a growing awareness of the need to develop strategies to meet the needs of the ageing population. The Department of Health (1999) has published a strategy for ageing, which sets out the government's commitment to improve the lives of older people. The strategy is based on three main principles: (1) to ensure that older people have the opportunity to live independently and actively; (2) to ensure that older people have access to the services and support they need; and (3) to ensure that older people are treated with respect and dignity.

The strategy is based on the following assumptions: (1) that older people are a diverse group with different needs and interests; (2) that older people should be able to live independently and actively; (3) that older people should have access to the services and support they need; and (4) that older people should be treated with respect and dignity. The strategy sets out a range of measures to be taken to improve the lives of older people, including: (1) to improve the physical environment; (2) to improve the social environment; (3) to improve the financial environment; and (4) to improve the health and social care environment.

Homecoming provides excitement for all

Homecoming is the cause of much excitement and hard work on the part of the band, the football team and cheerleaders. Some members of the student body, namely the senior boys, had perhaps the most enjoyable job of all: Choosing the Homecoming Queen.

“You Can’t Take It With You” says fall play

This year the fall play was “You Can’t Take It With You.” In this play set in New York City during the depression, Mike Bean played Grandpa Vanderhof, the head of a bizarre and eccentric family. Al Bridgeman was an inventor of fireworks; his wife, played by Marla Houston, wrote plays. One of Vanderhof’s granddaughter’s, an aspiring ballet dancer, was played by Sam Grant. The only “traditional” member of this wacky family was Alice, played by Nancy Baker. Alice becomes engaged to the son of her boss. Ken Shier, Jim Mahafey and Kathy Shelley played the wealthy Kirby family.

Sophomore Karyn Weltzin feeds a cat which was used for the play.

Senior Mike Bean gets his hair sprayed by Ms. Munday before he performs as an old man.

"Did you clean the spaghetti off of those dishes?" Wanda Wright asks Margaret Burris. "I thought I saw something move!"

"I refuse to comment on your make-up job," Jim Mahaffey tells Charles Lawson.

Wanda Wright prepares herself mentally for going on stage.

Do the "G-men" know what's going on behind them? (All photos this page by Mark Chartrand.)

Junior Carnival has traditional favorites

This year the junior carnival earned about $1500. There were lots of different games and plenty of food to eat. It was held on Dec. 10. It's purpose is to help support the junior-senior prom.

Santa, played by Greg Britt, poses with two of his charming elves above. (Left) Three bunnies, Julie Clark, Laurel Posey, and Jessica Kuyrkendall, pose for the camera.

Girls appear busy as the junior carnival gets a lot of business.

All classes participate in Spirit Week

Many students look anxiously for Spirit Week. To find out which class is the best, they decorate the halls and do skits. This year the juniors won the hall decorations. Everyone puts out their best to win.

Freshmen await initiation apprehensively

The school wouldn't be the same without the traditional Freshmen initiation. Most Freshmen can't wait until the day they belong as students to the high school. Some are afraid that behind every corner there may be a senior. Well Freshmen, good luck throughout the year!

(Right) Freshman Tod Davisson and Senior Kevin Luers battle it out to see who can crack the egg on their forehead first.

Running to receive the ball is #34 Steve Mitchell in the K.V. game.

Randy Fleming sweeps around the end to score for RCHS against North White.

The freshmen football team ended with a 4-2 record. It had 2 disappointing losses to Benton Central (6-2), and Valporaiso (14-8), followed by 4 strong wins over K.V., Twin Lakes, N. Judson, and N. Newton. Coach Tait said that this team consisted of very hard working individuals and was a real pleasure to work with. All of the goals that Tait set for the team were accomplished: to develop a winning attitude and confidence, develop a team concept and team support, and to have each individual improve as a player and as a person.

The following awards were given: Mr. Lineman, Lynn Marlatt; Mr. Offense, Lance Barton; Mr. Defense, Scott Murphy; Mr. Practice Mike Kosta and Steve Mitchell.

Benton Central	6	RCHS	2
Valporaiso	14		8
K.V.	6		8
Twin Lakes	0		13
N. Judson	0		26
N. Newton	2		16

Varsity football has winning season

The Varsity football team has a 6-4 winning season. They were NWHC champs and they had a good turn out. Coach Hainje says the team should be pleased by its accomplishments.

This year 13 seniors participated in playing on the Varsity football team, they are the following: Row 1 (left to right): Jeff Meyer, Tom Branson, Steve Phillips, Bruce Pettet, David Skinner, Scott Lucero, Larry Brinley. Row 2 (left to right): Bob Carter, Doug Hoover, Chris Tonner, Terry Boesch, John Ahler, Kevin Luers.

The J-V football team ended with a good seasonal record of 5-1. Coach McKim said "It was an enjoyable season. Our hard work and determination were rewarded." The goal of the team was "to allow playing time for those athletes, who work hard but find themselves not ready for varsity competition," said McKim.

During the homecoming parade the J.V. team rode the fire truck, pictured above. Seniors had a little fun and built a pyramid at the 1982-1983 bonfire.

The 1982-83 girls varsity volleyball team ended the season with a 4-13 record. The goals of the team were to win as many games as possible, to learn varsity play (as most were former J.V. players). This year was a learning year on the varsity level with only 2 returning players. Coach Messman added "The girls usually played well against experienced teams." The following awards were given: Most Improved: Jane Reichert, Mental Attitude: Stacy Louck, Most Valuable: Tammy Teach.

Far right: Teresa Simonin magnificently maneuvers a spike over the net. Left: Is it a bird? A plane? No, it's Rhonda showing off her spectacular Sheffler spiking sensation.

The girls Junior Varsity team ended their season with a 11-8 record. During the year the freshmen wanted to obtain their first ever winning season. They were able to do that with the help of the experienced sophomores. The team participated and won the Tri-County Invitational Tournament. They were also runners up losing to W. Central in the N. White Invitational Tournament. Ms. Billiard, the team coach, added the following: "The key to the success of this team was improvement of basic skills." The following awards were given Mental Attitude—Mandy Moore; Most Valuable—Debbie Miller; Most Improved—Susanne Hughes.

Cross-Country team reaches Semi-State

The cross-country team finished off a very good season with a record of 8 wins and 5 losses. After receiving fourth place in both Sectional and Regional, they went on to place sixteenth at Semi-State.

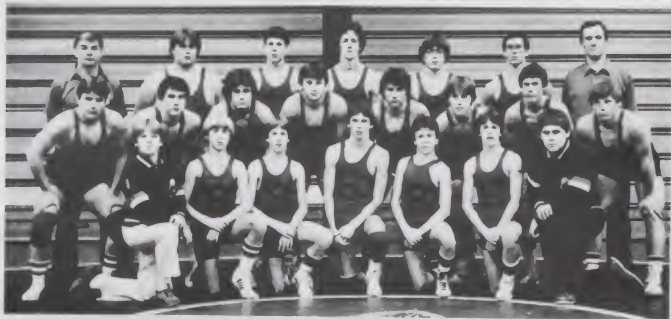

Team awards were given to: Peter Kenny, Captain Paul Simonin, Most Valuable and Mike Bean, Most Improved.

Chip Misch keeps an eye on the finish line at a home meet.

Staff produces "Cross-roads of Life"

This year the CHAOS staff produced the "Cross-roads of Life." In spite of a very small staff, every deadline was met. To reward themselves for their hard work, the CHAOS staff held a taco party in March. To learn about trends in yearbooks, the staff attended the J-Day Workshop at Ball State University. This year's sponsor was Ms. Henny Haigh.

A.V. assistants help entertain

During the year the A.V. assistants provide video tapes to the P.E. department by taping basketball games. They do lighting systems and musicals. The A.V. club also provides films for the students. In 1983 it showed "Super Seal," and Monty Python's "And Now For Something Completely Different." There are 12 members in the A.V. club. The A.V. assistance club is sponsored this year by Mr. Chartrand.

David Volkin looks like he knows what he's doing as he flashes spotlights onto the stage.

In 1982 member Jeff Harris won a blue ribbon at the Indiana Media Fair. This year he displayed photos at Cramer's, and some members have provided pictures for the yearbook.

Mr. Chartrand, the sponsor of the club, won Most Photogenic of 1983 Award.

The RENSSELAERIAN uncovers the sources.

The RENSSELAERIAN staff, a small group but having plenty of determination, produced 5 newspapers. The staff has been successful in completing their newspapers on time and making them enjoyable to read.

School Board makes things happen at RCHS

They establish school corporation policies and regulations. They carry out the legislative laws enacted regarding public education, provide curricular and financial standards for the school corporation. Some of the decisions the school board makes are if the high school and Monnett schools should be reroofed, bargain with teachers, administrators, and non-certified personal for salaries, establish a consistent snow policy and update school textbooks.

Principals, counselors, keep RCHS on track

Seniors become Superstars champs

The class of '83 ran away with first place on Superstars Day. Held on May 10 some new competitions were introduced. A cat-fish toss gave students "hands-on" experience with live fish, while a tricycle race called for long, unused skills for some students. A "back-to-back" race replaced a stilt walk. The victorious seniors were rewarded with a day off school the following Friday.

Seniors Suzy Post and Mary Brusnahan try to make their switch quickly during the tricycle race.

Musical goes back in time to Camelot

The 1983 musical, CAMELOT, was a sizeable production set in the mythical land of Camelot during the reign of King Authur. The play demanded much of the actors and actresses. Director Walter Schaltenbrand was pleased with the production and performance. "It is not an easy play to put on," he said. "It isn't a light, fluffy musical, such as GUYS AND DOLLS." But he is pleased with the students' work, especially that of the lead players Larry Brinley, Helen Hughes, and Stephanie Schultenbrand.

Prom brings new king and queen

The 1983 prom "A River Rendezvous," was a new experience for the junior class. Many juniors worked hard to put the prom together. Barb Baumann headed the overall prom committee and got a lot of help from Don Jacks, Chris Mingear, Jessica Kuykendall, Tammy Lashbrook, Jackie Wright, Julie Clark, Lisa Sysock, Steve Healey, Holly Eldridge, Leila Michal, Ryon Shaw, Chip Misch and Don Osika. The Band was Cold Steel. The King and Queen were Beth Hurley and Bruce Pettet.

Working on the murals are right, Jessica Kuykendall and Nancy Baker.

MISS BEHAVE

MISS DEMEANOR

MISS PLACED

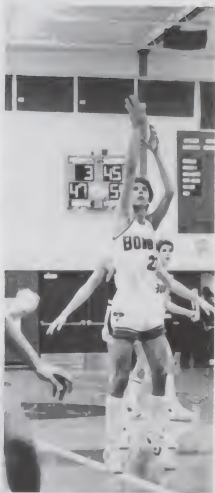

We as the Chaos co-editors would like to thank the following for their help on this year's CHAOS. Ms. Haigh, our advisor, we would like to thank for her devotion to the yearbook. We thank Mr. Chartrand for the many pictures he took and printed for us. We thank also our student photographers. We thank Mr. George Kingsley, our Herff Jones representative, for his guidance through the tough spots. Last but not least we would like to thank the staff. If it was not for the staff, the yearbook would not be what it is. Thank you all very much.
